

SENATORS COMBINE TO BLOCK THE WORK

NO TARIFF OR FINANCIAL REFORMS ARE TO GO.

Secret Agreement Said To Have Been Entered Into To Retard Any Such Measures—House Is Discussing the Currency Measure—News From the Nation's Capital.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—[Special]—It is said that a secret understanding has been entered into by a number of senators to block any action on any tariff or financial reform bill this session. The house went into a committee of the whole on the currency bill this morning. Libby of Pennsylvania spoke in opposition, strongly denouncing President Cleveland in the democratic caucus yesterday, on the straight question as to the adoption of the substitute currency bill the vote was 81 to 59. There were only 152 democrats in the caucus, there being upwards of three score and ten absentees. If fifty-nine men who voted against the Carlisle scheme in the caucus take the same course in the house they together with the republicans would be able to defeat it. Several of them, however, although they oppose the bill in caucus, will not do so in the house. The question at issue therefore is as to the stand which will be taken by the seventy odd democrats who did not attend the caucus. Chairman Springer declared nearly all the absentees will vote for the bill, although not having attended the caucus, because they were perfectly willing to abide by its decision. The fate of the measure in the house will be decided only when the final vote is taken at the end of the week.

In the caucus the bill offered by Representative Sperry of Connecticut, providing for the funding of the greenbacks into low rate popular bonds, was defeated by a vote of 70 to 13. The session was a long one and speeches were made by Speaker Crisp and Representatives Bland, Springer, Cox, Richardson, Cockran, Coombs, Bailey, Coffeen, Washington, Bryan, Livingston, Sperry, Johnson of Ohio, and others.

As a result of its action the committee on rules will bring in a resolution to-day providing for a special rule giving up this day to general debate and following with the five minute rule and a vote Saturday afternoon. The fight against the Carlisle scheme of the party will be led by the eastern men, and after the caucus had adjourned, they did not hesitate to predict their ability to beat it by the assistance of the republicans, but it is certain many democrats opposed to the measure will hesitate to record themselves as voting against a bill championed by the President and secretary of the treasury, and the prospects now are that the scheme, with some modifications, will be either passed or defeated by an exceedingly slender majority.

SPEAKS FOR CANAL.

Senator Mitchell Booms the Nicaragua Project.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The senate adjourned shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday as a mark of respect to the memory of Representative Post of Illinois, who died Sunday. Before that, after the conclusion of some unfinished business Senator Mitchell of Oregon made a great speech in favor of the Nicaragua canal bill in the senate. He paid particular attentions to the objections of Senator Turpie and answered each in turn. He first took up the point made by Senator Turpie that the bill was unconstitutional and made a strong argument. He said:

"Whatever may be the constitutional power of the government to guarantee the payment of the principal or interest, or both, of the obligations of a purely private corporation, it is clear such is not the proposition now before the senate. The senator from Indiana is wrong in likening it to a proposition to guarantee the obligation of one of the states of the Union. While in one sense the Maritime Canal company of Nicaragua is a mere private corporation, holding its charter from the congress of the United States, it is presented in the pending bill. Endowed with the functions with which this measure clothes it, and being the cestui que trust of important governmental rights and franchises, in virtue of invaluable subventions from two foreign republics, it is at once transformed from a mere private corporation, a mere person, a medium through and by which these great sovereign powers exercise certain public functions and perform certain grand governmental purposes. It is no longer the mere depository of certain individual rights and interests; no longer the mere trustee or agent of private property and individual personal rights, but the necessary and proper depository of important governmental rights and interests, the selections and appropriate instrumentality through and by which the government exercises certain important public functions, the grand purpose of which is to provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare and regulate commerce with foreign nations and among the several states."

The senator then discussed the features of the bill and took up each of the objections by Mr. Turpie and reviewed and answered them at length. He showed the importance of the canal to his own state and to the Pacific coast, as well as to the whole country. Mr. Mitchell concluded with an earnest appeal for immediate and favorable action on the bill.

At the conclusion of Mr. Mitchell's address the chair laid before the senate a letter of the secretary of state saying that J. W. Foster in assisting China in peace negotiations with Japan sustains no official or other relations to the United States.

Will Oppose Tariff Legislation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The republican steering committee attempted to meet yesterday morning, but did not muster a quorum. Though no conclusion was reached members of the conference said there would be no tariff legislation, not even the correction of what are termed errors in the bill. As to the fight against the income tax it was understood Senator Quay would oppose that provision in the appropriation bill and other republicans would make speeches, but there would be no party fight made upon it.

SUGAR TAX TO STAND.

Little Probability that Congress Will Repeal It.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—What action congress will take to end the growing tariff complications between this government and European powers, or whether any measures will be adopted for that purpose, are questions concluded in uncertainty. Considering the importance of the tariff war to commercial interests attention given to it by members of congress is noticeably slight. Chairman Wilson of the ways and means committee, recently introduced a bill, in accordance with the recommendation in the President's message, to repeal the one tenth of a cent differential on sugar, which evoked protests from Germany and Austria, and which, it is stated, inspired retaliatory action by the former government in the form of prohibition of American beef. But it is not altogether certain that the ways and means committee will report this bill to the house, nor is it at all assured that the house will pass it in case it emerges from the committee and is given a hearing.

Mourn for Gen. Post.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Ten members of the Illinois delegation were present yesterday in the speaker's lobby for the purpose of taking appropriate action regarding the death of Gen. Post of Illinois. It was decided that Gen. Henderson, in view of his long service in the house, should make the announcement of the death of his colleague and present the resolutions adopted by the meeting. After Gen. Henderson's eulogy and the adoption of suitable resolutions, the speaker announced the appointment of the committee to attend the funeral on the part of the house as follows: Messrs. Henderson of Illinois, Bynum of Indiana, Boutelle of Maine, Lane, Marsh and Childs of Illinois, Stallings of Alabama, Wheeler of Illinois and Lucas of South Dakota. The house then adjourned.

Decides Against "Sugar" Brokers.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia yesterday rendered an opinion sustaining the decision of Judge Cole in the case of Chapman & MacCartney, the stock brokers who refused to testify before the senate sugar investigations through their firms. Judge Cole's decision overruled a demurrer filed by the brokers to the government indictment. The cases will now be appealed to the United States Supreme court.

Indian Affairs Under Discussion.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The Sioux Indian agents and army officers in charge of other reservations, who were summoned to Washington by Commissioner of Indian Affairs Brown, held an informal conference with the secretary of the interior yesterday. The work among the Indian schools and the problem of eventual self-sustenance were the questions discussed. Other conferences are to be held.

For Relief of Homestead Settlers.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The senate committee on public lands yesterday favorably reported the bill recommended by Secretary Smith for the relief of homestead settlers on timber lands in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan, who suffered loss by reason of the severe forest fires of the last autumn. The bill has already passed the house.

Relation of Machinery to Labor.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—A general investigation on the advance of machinery in the industrial world and its effect on labor has been begun by the bureau of labor. The object is to determine what modern machinery has done as compared to hand labor and what inroads machinery has made in the field occupied by hand labor. The work will require a year or more.

Bill for Admission of Oklahoma.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Senator Martin yesterday introduced a bill for the admission of Oklahoma as a state. The bill provides for an extension of the territory so as to include a part of the territory of the Chickasaw nation.

Big Bridge in Danger.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Jan. 8.—The rivers here are about ten feet and rising. Two more feet will take the water over the banks at the famous stone bridge and three feet more will flood the lower part of the town. Reports from up the river say that a steady rain is falling and still much snow

THE RISING RIVERS CAUSE MUCH LOSS

100,000 RAILROAD TIES SWEEP AWAY AT PORTSMOUTH.

The Loss Will Reach Thirty Thousand Dollars, as They Were Valued at That Sum—Pennsylvania Suffers the Most in the Flooding of Mines.

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio, Jan. 8.—Over a hundred thousand ties belonging to the Erie road got away in the Tygart river. Thirty thousand dollars will about cover the loss.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 8.—Pittsburgh had a scare yesterday. The heavy rains of the last forty-eight hours swelled the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers to flood height. Only twenty-five feet of water is expected. This is about eight feet less than the last flood four years ago. Over fifty boats were swept from their moorings along the Monongahela river. A number of barges loaded with coal and worth $10,000 each sank. Many mills had to close on account of the water getting into the fly wheel pits. The Carrie furnace, the Pittsburgh wire works, and the Braddock wire works at Braddock, were also compelled to close.

Along the river fronts and in the low lands of Allegheny dozens of families were compelled to move from the lower part of their houses into upper rooms. By noon the waters are expected to subside. Twelve million bushels of coal will then be started south. The steamer Tillie was sunk at McKeesport, but no lives were lost.

The flood has done its worst as far as Pittsburgh and points above on both rivers are concerned. What further damage may be done will be below. The Monongahela here registers twenty-three feet and rising very slowly. The best river authorities agree in placing the highest stage at twenty-six feet. Advances from all of the up river points show that the water is either receding or about stationary. The heaviest individual loss so far reported was that at McKeesport, where fifty coal barges were carried from the docks and down the river, entailing a loss of between $35,000 and $40,000.

Beaver, Pa., reports that the coffer at the new government dam just below Vanport has been swept away with considerable money damage and the loss of one life. The most serious damage in the Allegheny will be done to the government work at Herris Island, where the new dam is now in course of construction. The water is now over the coffer dams and it is likely that all of the work will be destroyed. The low ground in Etina and Sharpsburg is submerged. The railroads between both east and west are being troubled. Trains were delayed by landslides at Ben Avon and at Connellsville.

ON THE OHIO.

Fears Felt at Cincinnati and Loss Already Is Serious.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Jan. 8.—There are fears that the present rise of the Ohio will cause a serious flood. Already the bottom lands in and about the city are under water. The Mill Creek Valley, which runs through the western part of the city, and is peopled principally by gardeners, was swept by a sudden flood Sunday night and much property was destroyed. The loss will not be less than $10,000. Other damage has been done and the danger is not yet over.

Big Flood May Be Repeated.

BELLAIRE, Ohio, Jan. 8.—The indications now are that the great flood of 1884 will be repeated. The river is rising rapidly in consequence of incessant rain for the last thirty-six hours. The ice in the Ohio river and its tributaries broke up and ran out last night. Several barges were lost. Two bridges on the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railway were washed away. Trains could not be run yesterday and traffic was blocked. The low lands will be flooded and people are moving to higher grounds.

Closes Down Mills.

MCKEESPORT, Pa., Jan. 8.—At midnight last night the water was up on Market street and all the families along Water street have moved out. Water is in the Deveses-Wood company's mill and part of the mill is shut down. The damage to the plant so far will reach $10,000. Other works have closed down. The water is four feet deep on the main street of Dravosburg. The loss in McKeesport will reach $40,000.

Small Towns Submerged.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Jan. 8.—The situation here is really alarming. Yowerville, a suburb of New Haven is submerged; two thirds of the citizens have already moved out. Reports from Dawson, Dickerson's Run, Bannings, and other towns say great damage is being done. The slope mines along the river are flooded and work has been suspended; it will require several weeks to get the water pumped out of them.

Compelled to Abandon Trains.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 8.—On the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railroad one bridge was washed away at Bruce and one at Wheeling creek mines. There were no trains north yesterday and the train due at Bridgeport at 1:30 p. m. was abandoned at Uhrichsville.

THE KING OF COREA NOW SPEAKS OUT

FORMALLY ANNOUNCES CO-REA'S INDEPENDENCE.

Terrible Accident on a Brazilian Steamer, Whereby Twenty People Lost Their Lives—Our Consul Says the Japanese Are Children—General News of Foreign Countries.

SEOUL, Jan. 8.—The King of Corea has formally declared the independence of Corea.

RIO JANEIRO, Jan. 8.—A terrible accident, resulting in the loss of 120 lives, has occurred in the bay here. The boilers of the steamer Port Nichol, which had a large number of excursionists on board, exploded and the shock drove the red hot coals in the furnaces in every direction. The steamer caught fire and a great number of those on board jumped overboard to escape the flames. Altogether 120 persons were drowned.

SAYS JAPANESE ARE CHILDREN.

Consul-General at Yokohama Makes Some Startling Statements.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Telegraphic advices have been received that Consul-General McIves of Yokohama has just written a private report of fifty pages to the state department at Washington declaring that the Japanese are children as regards civilization, and that they have imitated the fruits of civilization without their antecedent moral and mental growth. He declares them to be utterly incapable of grasping the fundamental principles of law, as it is understood in highly civilized countries. The consul-general deals in great detail with the present attempt of the Japanese to assert judicial jurisdiction over offenses committed by Japanese sailors on American ships in Japanese waters.

Will Cede No Territory.

PARIS, Jan. 8.—A dispatch from Shanghai says Chinese envoys appointed to negotiate peace with Japan are instructed to accede to no demands for the surrender of Chinese territory. They will treat only on the basis of granting independence to Corea and paying an indemnity to Japan. The two Chinese Gens. Chiang and Chen, who were reported by Li Hung Chang as having died heroically while facing the enemy at Port Arthur, have turned up unscratched.

Six British Ships Go Ashore.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Odessa says six British steamers have gone ashore in the Nicolaieff river owing to the fog and ice. A Paris dispatch to the same paper says the cold is intense, the mercury marking 7 degrees. Several Austrian villages have been completely isolated, and a number of peasants have been frozen to death.

Several Lives Lost in an Avalanche.

PARIS, Jan. 8.—In addition to the avalanche at Orliu in the Canton of Aix les Thermes, Pyreness, Saturday there has been a similar accident at Bazerques, in the Canton of Ax, department of Ariège. This second avalanche killed three persons and seriously injured three others. Numerous other accidents of the same nature are reported.

Great Britain's Exports and Imports.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The total value of imports into Great Britain during the year 1894 was £408,505,718 ($2,042,528,590) and the exports £216,194,239 ($1,080,911,195), being an increase in the value of imports of £3,817,540 ($19,087,700) and a decrease in the value of exports of £1,900,626 ($9,503,130) as compared with those of 1893.

William's Well Wishes for Bismarck.

BERLIN, Jan. 8.—New Year's day Emperor William telegraphed to Prince Bismarck as follows: "I hope, honored prince, that during 1895 you will fully recover from the bitter loss with which you were recently afflicted and that you will continue in good health and spirits."

Pacific Mail Steamer Ashore.

NAGASAKI, Japan, Jan. 8.—The Pacific Mail steamer City of Rio de Janeiro, Capt. Smith, is ashore south Kagoshima. The extent of the damage has not yet been learned.

Budget Estimates from Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 8.—The budget estimate for 1895 shows the deficit, 69,421,000 rubles ($2,065,750), must be covered by the cash reserve in the treasury.

German Officer Is Killed in a Duel.

GERSTEMUNDE, Jan. 8.—A duel with pistols was fought near here yesterday between Lieut. Burski and Capt. Mittler, both officers in the German army. The latter was killed.

United Mine Workers to Meet.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 8.—A call has been issued for the annual meeting of the United Mine Workers of America to be held in this city Feb. 12. The call contains nothing except the citation of constitutional provisions regarding the convention.

President of Chicago Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—At the board of trade election yesterday William T. Baker was chosen president to succeed C. L. Raymond. For the third time he was elected to the office without organized opposition.

ROB HIM OF MILLIONS.

Startling Charges Made Against Judge Ricks of Ohio.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Charges of a sensational character against United States District Judge Augustus Ricks of Cleveland are contained in a memorial presented to the house of representatives yesterday. Representative Johnson of Ohio secured immediate consideration for a resolution instructing the judiciary committee to investigate the charges, and without debate the resolution was adopted. The charges are made under oath by S. J. Ritchie of Akron, Ohio, a wealthy capitalist of that section. While directed mainly at Judge Ricks they indirectly affect Judge Burke and Ex-United States Senator Payne of Cleveland. The charges involve losses reaching $5,000,000. Mr. Ritchie claims to have suffered in decisions made by Judge Ricks affecting Canadian copper and nickel mines. Mr. Ritchie avers that in 1889 he negotiated in England for the sale of the property for $15,000,000 when, his petition alleges, his associates "commenced to put into execution a thoroughly planned and infamous scheme to rob" himself and his wife, who had the largest interests. To assist them in their designs, it is charged, Judge Ricks prostituted his office and became their subservient and plant tool. The judge contents himself with a general and contemptuous denial of the charges made.

Lobbied of Lane Is Its Speaker.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 8.—The Kansas legislature convenes at noon to-day. C. E. Lobdell of Lane county was nominated for speaker by acclamation by the republicans, the last one of his opponents withdrawing from the race. The inauguration of the new officers will not take place until next Monday, so that Gov. Lewelling, populist, will have an opportunity to message the legislature, which he probably do today. The great topic is on the question of an open or secret caucus, and the overwhelming sentiment seems to be for a secret caucus. This has been the custom in recent years.

Trouble Ahead in California.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 8.—The legislature of California convened yesterday. The republicans have a majority in both houses and elected the temporary officers. The new members were sworn in and thereupon both branches adjourned until to-day. The contest over the governorship is still a great topic of discussion and feeling runs very high. The main legislative interest is the rivalry for which will probably be commenced next Tuesday.

Want Relief for Unemployed.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 8.—A committee representing the Hooking Valley Labor and Trades union arrived here last night with a petition which will be presented to Gov. McKinley appealing to the people of Ohio for relief for the unemployed at Nelsonville and vicinity. The union is composed of 1,800 men, and has under its jurisdiction a total of 8,600 men, women and children.

In the Missouri Legislature.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 8.—In the house yesterday a bill was introduced prohibiting the sale of oleomargarine, under penalty of $500 for each offense, unless it is colored different from natural butter. In the senate a bill was introduced to reorganize the state militia on a footing similar to the United States army, limiting the number of men to 3,500, and allowing them $1 per day expense when in service.

The Situation in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 8.—The caucus for the nomination of a candidate for speaker of the lower house of the legislature will meet to-morrow night, the call for to-day having been rescinded on account of the inability of several of the members to arrive in time. His friends claim the situation stands Justin C. Adams of Marion against the field.

Wyoming's Inaugural Ceremonies.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 8.—Gov. Richards and the other state officers were sworn in at noon yesterday, the oath being administered by Chief Justice Groesbeck. J. C. Davis and Jay L. Torrey, prominent candidates for the United States senatorship, have withdrawn from the contest, making the election of ex-Senator P. E. Warren and ex-Congressman C. D. Clark almost assured.

Decides a Moot Point in Land Law.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 8.—In deciding the celebrated Leveque land case from the Duluth district yesterday Judge Nelson of the United States court settled a moot point under the federal land laws, by holding that the relinquishment of pre-empted land extinguishes a mortgage upon it.

Senatorial Contest in Idaho.

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 8.—Although the legislators are nearly all in the city, it is impossible as yet to form any idea of the relative strength of Senator Shoup and Judge Sweet in the senatorial contest. Friends of each are confident. The populist members, fifteen in number, will probably cast their votes for Col. Crook, their candidate for governor two years ago.

Senator Harris Renominated.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 8.—The democratic caucus yesterday renominated United States Senator Harris, State Treasurer and Comptroller Harris.

A FAST YOUNG MAN NOW IN THE TOILS

W. B. SMITH IS CHARGED WITH A MURDER.

He Is Prominent as a Business Man at Indianapolis, Indiana, and Has Squandered a Fortune—Blight's Defence Will Be Insanity—Boy White Cap Killed—Criminal News.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 8.—Winifred B. Smith was arraigned in the criminal court yesterday for the murder of Weston B. Thomas. The case will probably not go the jury until some time next week. Smith is 25 years old, of good family, and is a stepson of Dr. Wands, one of the leading citizens of the state. Although surrounded by the best of influences Smith had a tendency to go wild and has been for some time known about town as a fast young man. Since arriving at the age of 21 he has spent a good sized fortune left by his father. Smith killed Weston B. Thomas on Thursday morning, July 12, at a resort near this city. Thomas was secretary and treasurer of the American Nail Works of Anderson, and was about 23 years of age and worth $400,000. Thomas has been married about a year and his honeymoon had been spent in Europe. Both men were in liquor and the quarrel was about a woman whom young Smith had taken to the resort in a buggy.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 8.—Claus A. Blixt, the self-confessed murderer of Catherine Gung, the pretty milliner who was murderously shot several weeks ago and left dying on the roadside near this city, was arraigned for trial in the district court yesterday. When the case was called the court room was crowded almost to suffocation. The accused was represented by R. R. O'Dell, and County Attorney Nye appeared for the defense set up the plea of temporary insanity, brought on by the excessive use of alcoholic stimulants, which, they claim, was given Blixt by Hayward for the purpose of provoking the murderer to the deed.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Jan. 5.—A farmer named Washington, living near Fort Branch, had been accused of abusing his daughter, and some boys sent him a Whitecap warning and tried to emphasize it by paying him a midnight visit. Washington met them with a knife and pistol, and the death of a boy named Henry Hussey resulted from injuries received. Another of the boys was badly wounded.

Will Have a New Trial.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 8.—The order of Judge Caldwell concerning the discharge of employees who testified in the wage investigation is to be given another trial. Two former employees of the Union Pacific, now out of employment because of retrenchment, are preparing to do this. Fifteen men were dismissed. Of these two were old employees and they claim priority of service should have entitled them to remain at work.

Freeport Murderer to Die.

FREEPORT, Ill., Jan. 8.—Three months ago August Altemeyer was to death by a gang of local toughs, seven of whom were arrested on a charge of murder. The trial ended in the Circuit court yesterday. The jury acquitted five, and found Tom Beverly and Otto Herbig guilty of the murder. Beverly was sentenced to hang, and Herbig gets eighteen years in the penitentiary. Beverly is 24 years old and Herbig 20.

Debs Gets Another Stay.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Action in the Debs case was again deferred by Judge Woods yesterday. It will probably be decided to-day.

WILL RETURN TO WORK.

Happy Ending of a Dispute That Has Continued for Nearly a Year.

MASSILLON, Ohio, Jan. 8.—Delegates clothed with power to act came here from all sections of the mining region yesterday, and after a protracted session voted to give up the strike against the decision of the board of arbitration, and to go to work for 60 cents a ton. They have resolved to go to work at once, and settle some issues not considered by the board of arbitration at their convenience. The dispute has continued under various forms since Feb. 19, 1894.

Only Saved by Prompt Work.

ENGLISH, Ind., Jan. 8.—The residences and business houses on low ground were saved by prompt work, but the flood was so sudden as to preclude rescue of animals. One woman who lost heavily attempted suicide, but was rescued.

Farmers Suffer from High Water.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 8.—In southern Indiana the farmers are suffering severely from the overflows. At Bedford, on the Monon road, the bridge has been washed away. At Vienna 300 feet of the railroad track has been washed away.

Homestead Strike Broken.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 8.—The 119-inch mill at the Homestead works is working to-day and the strike at that place is broken.

End of Her Life Is Not Far Away.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Jan. 8.—Miss Stevenson is resting comfortably but is growing gradually weaker.

HERE IS THE PLAN FOR INCOME TAX SCHEDULE OF RETURNS THAT MUST BE MADE.

There Are Two Kinds of Blanks, One for Individuals and One for Business Firms—The Deductions That Are Made—Some Pointed Questions Asked.

Janesville people will soon be called upon to pay their income tax and many are wondering just what is expected of them.

Two styles of blanks have been prepared, one for the use of corporations and the other for individuals, and one of the latter must be returned by every person receiving an income of $3500 and upward. The blanks will be distributed at once, and must be returned before the first Monday in March. In case of failure to make the return in time, the collector will fill up the necessary blank and add 50 per cent. to the amount of the tax.

Receipts of All Kinds. In the blank for individuals all the various items of receipts are first given as follows:

1. Gross profits from any business, or any interest therein, wherever carried on. $
2. From rents received or accrued during the year. $
3. From profits realized on sales of real estate purchased since December 31, 1892. $
4. From farming operations. Proceeds from the sales of livestock. $
5. Proceeds from the sales of agricultural products. $
6. Money and the value of all personal property acquired by gift of inheritance. $
7. Premium on bonds, stock, notes or coupons. $
8. Income from profession, trade or other employment, except stated salary or pay. $
9. From salary, compensation or pay for particular services, and not including salary or compensation received from the United States. $

Salaries From the Government.

10. From salary or compensation received for services in the civil, military, naval or other service of the United States, including salary of senator, representative or delegate in congress. $
11. From interest received or accrued within the year upon all notes, bonds, mortgages or other forms of indebtedness bearing interest, whether paid or not, if good and collectible. $
12. From interest or coupons paid or accrued on any bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, of any corporation, company or association. $
13. From dividends or interests paid or accrued on the stock, capital or deposits of any corporation, company or association. $
14. Income of wife or minor children, computed on the same basis as this return. $
15. From all sources, not above enumerated, viz: ( ), $

Total gains, profit and income, $

Deductions To Be Made.

Following the receipts are the deductions which must be made to get at the net amount on which the tax is chargeable.

1. Exempt by law, $4000
2. Interest which has become due or which has been paid during the year. $
3. National, state, county, school or municipal taxes paid within the year, not including taxes assessed against local benefits. $
4. Amount expended in the purchase or production of live stock or produce sold within the year. $
5. Necessary expenses actually incurred in carrying on any business, occupation or profession, and not elsewhere deducted in this return. $
6. Losses actually sustained during the year, incurred in trade or arising from fires, storms or shipwreck, and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, and not already deducted in ascertaining profits. $
7. Actual losses on sales of real estate purchased since December 31, 1892. $
8. Debts ascertained within the year to be worthless, and not elsewhere deducted in this return. $
9. Salary. Compensation or pay over $1,000 from which the tax of 2 per centum has been deducted or withheld by any paymaster, disbursing officer or other person in the employ of the United States. $
10. Dividends heretofore included in the estimate of gross profits, under paragraph 13, received from corporations, companies or associations, on which the tax of 2 per centum has once been paid by such corporation. $

Total deductions, $

Taxable income for the year 1894, $

Amount of tax at 2 per cent. $

Some Very Pointed Questions.

The person making the return must also answer the following questions:

1. Had your wife or any minor child or children of yours any income last year?
2. Have you included such income or incomes in this return?
3. Have you kept books of account?
4. Is your income herein estimated or taken from your books?
5. What are the particular items of "losses" set forth by you opposite paragraph 6 of "deductions" and when did each occur?

6. Are you a citizen of the United States, and what is your occupation?

7. How did you determine that debts returned by you as "worthless" could not be collected?

8. What were the "necessary expenses" and the amount of each class, included in the amount set opposite paragraph 5 of "deductions"?

The entire return is then sworn to, with supplemental affidavits in case the income is less than $1,000. For corporations the blank is in the same general form, but with the items and questions altered to meet the different conditions. On each blank are copious extracts from the law, and instructions by the treasury department.

REV. BURDICK will preach in the Harmony town hall Sunday the 13th, 2 p. m. Everybody invited to come and hear him.

THE mercury will fall in a day or two, perhaps, and then your water pipes will suffer. Simply telephone No. 5 and you will be relieved.

HELP a charitable institution by buying clothing at Ziegler's this month, as he gives one per cent of the gross receipts to the city hospital.

AMONG the list of new telephones placed during the last week, is No. 168 and it leads to A. C. Munger's handsome new grocery store at 20 North Main street.

TOMORROW is your last chance to get dry goods and cloaks at about 10 cents on the dollar as we will close our Midway store at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening. F. S. Winslow.

As a rule we have had January and February a clearing sales, but this year we cleared out in December, and are now showing new spring goods, at least 60 days ahead of anyone else. Bort, Bailey & Co.

We are selling lots of articles at cost, and some below cost to reduce stock before Feb. 7, and we also will give one per cent of this month's receipts to the city hospital. Ziegler.

WE have nothing to clean up for we did our cleaning in December; but we are getting in new dress goods, carpets, etc. the 1895 patterns, which we are selling at much less than old goods can be purchased. Bort, Bailey & Co.

THE ice at the Bower City skating rink was never better, nice, smooth and glassy. Professor Huyke's orchestra will furnish music tonight while the lovers of the sport glide over the ice on their steel runners.

THE way we buy it impossible for any competitor to meet our prices, and when we reduce prices as we are doing now, we simply sell cheaper than they buy. One per cent of this month's receipts goes to the city hospital. T. J. Jiegler.

WE are liable to have cold, snowy and slushy weather until April 1. Why not get a pair of those felt boots and rubbers we are selling so cheap. When they are gone we can not replace for the same money. Price in large advertisement. Lloyd & Son, 57 W. Milwaukee.

THERE will be a joint installation of the officers of W. H. Sargent Post number 20 G. A. R., and of the Woman's Relief Corps, at Post Hall on North Main street, Friday night, January 11. All members of the Post and of the Woman's Relief Corps, and their families, are invited to be present. Don't forget to bring your baskets well filled with rations. By ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

MILTON SCHOOL ROW HAS BEEN SETTLED

ALL THE TROUBLE IS NOW AT AN END.

Miss Leonard's Resignation Was Accepted, Prof. Buell Is Retained, and Misses Millar and Brown Fill the Vacancies—Gossip from Fairfield, Lima Center and Other Points.

MILTON, Jan. 8.—The school trouble has finally been adjusted. At a late meeting of the school board the resignation of Miss Bede Leonard was accepted. Professor Buell was continued as principal; Misses Nellie Brown and Alice Millar were selected to fill the positions vacated by Misses Connors and Leonard, and today the school opens with a good attendance. It was ten degrees below zero here Friday morning.

"The Stone Age" is the title of a lecture which will be delivered next Monday evening in college chapel by Horace M. McElroy, Esq. of Janesville. Mr. McElroy was for many years an officer in the U. S. Navy, and was stationed for a time on the west coast of South America where he had exceptionally good opportunities for studying the prehistoric remains of Peru, etc. He is a ripe scholar, a close observer and is thoroughly qualified to present his subject in an interesting manner. No admission fee will be charged and all are invited to attend the lecture at 7:30.

Mrs. E. D. Farnham met with a fall Thursday evening and partially dislocated her shoulder. She is doing as well as could be expected and no serious results are feared. Fetherston & Bro. shipped four car loads of grain last week despite the dull times. The lecture by Rev. F. A. Pease, D. D. of Janesville, advertised for this evening has been postponed on account of the week of prayer. The lecture will be given next Wednesday evening, January 16.

The annual meeting of the Seventh Day Baptist church and society was held Sunday morning. At the conclusion of the business meeting dinner was served and about two hundred did ample justice to the bill of fare provided. Miss Birdie Davis, who has been quite ill with an ulcerated sore throat, not diphtheria as has been reported, is making a good recovery. W. H. Cors has moved from this village to a farm near Fort Atkinson and will be a granger hereafter. Prof. C. F. Bingham returned to Chicago Tuesday and will resume his orchestra work in the Academy of Music. Mrs. Blount, of the Telephone, made a business trip to Chicago Saturday. Mrs. John Cunningham, of Janesville, spent Sunday with Milton relatives.

Indian Ford News.

INDIAN FORD, Jan. 8.—There was a very pleasant gathering of invited guests, relatives and friends, at C. S. Thomas' on New Year day. They did ample justice to a bountiful dinner. T. N. Walrath was shaking hands with his friends in this place last week. Some of the young people of this place gave Jessie Cox a surprise party last Friday night, and had an enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn, of Janesville, made Mr. and Mrs. R. Call a very pleasant visit one day last week. Peter McCan has moved back from the Stone estate where he has been at work for the past month or more. Silas Ward of Plattville, is again in our midst for a few days. Mrs. Alverson of Adams county, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Thomas. Frank Scofield, of Osage, Iowa, made a flying visit to this place, called here by the death of his father, Edwin Scofield. Elmer Stone is on the sick list as is also Eada Rogers. John Hill of Janesville, was gathering up the contributions preparatory to shipping them to the Nebraska sufferers, last Saturday. Henry Whitaker was seen cutting ice Saturday, we presume preparatory to filling his ice house. Prayer meeting Tuesday night in Good Templars' hall.

Notes From Lima Center.

LIMA CENTER, Jan. 8.—Truman Rice, of Charles City, Iowa, is visiting at Fred Gould's. Alton Coates and wife, of Milwaukee; G. R. Charles and wife, of Afton; and A. McLane, of LaGrange, spent New Years with friends in the village. Mrs. Richardson, who has been failing for some time, died at her son's home, Saturday. Mrs. Dr. Watson and daughter spent New Years in Whitewater at Mrs. Douglas'. Miss Josie Barker, after a week's vacation returned to Plattville last Wednesday evening, where she is attending the Normal college. Frank Freeman received a gold chain and charm as a New Years' gift. Miss Carrie Johnson is visiting at Stoughton. Mrs. A. Alphis went to Janesville to have an operation performed, and is getting along finely. Communication services will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday, January 16.

Fairfield Happenings.

FAIRFIELD, Jan. 8.—Remember the Junior Sunday school concert to be given on Friday evening of this week. Come early to obtain a good seat. Miss Lettie Baldwin of Clinton returned to her home last Saturday evening after a few days visit with her cousin Miss Katie Bowdish. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutter of Red Cloud, Nebraska, are guests at James Cutters this week. The Sunday school is prospering finely under the management of our superintendent Mr. William Dykeman. Much interest is manifested and many new names are enrolled. Sunday school opens at 1 o'clock every Sunday afternoon and a welcome is extended to all.

A CLUE.

It Will Open Your Eyes in Amazement.

Dreadful Events Like This Constantly Occur.

No Wonder People Are Alarmed About This Matter.

People are always seeking clues, and the one which leads straight to the object sought is the safest and surest. The world is filled with complaints and weaknesses, which, when neglected lead to the most dangerous diseases. These weaknesses are constantly found among people who think themselves fairly well. Such people are careless and this is just the reason so many persons break down and become mental and physical wrecks, with shattered nerves and broken health. Your curiosity will be aroused by reading the following letter from Mr. Joseph B. Pierce, of Northfield, Mass. It is the clue to health.

"I have been subject to the fever and ague, which had become chronic. I had the dumb ague without the shaking. I suffered great pain during the spells. I tried many things for a cure, but without good results.

"I tried Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy on the recommendation of a friend, and am happy to say that I derived the best results from its use of anything I have ever used.

Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the surest road to health, because it has back of it Dr. Greene himself, who stands ready at all times to answer for its action, and its genuine worth. It cures weakness, nervousness, headache, malaria, dyspepsia, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness and nervous debility. It makes people strong and well.

Why waste time in trying uncertain and untried remedies, when here is a physician's prescription, a discovery made by the greatest living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. Dr. Greene, of 35 West 11th St., New York City. If you take this medicine you can consider yourself under Dr. Greene's professional care, and you can consult him, or write to him about your case, freely and without charge. This is a guarantee that this remedy will cure, possessed by no other medicine in the world.

OLD SETTLERS MEET JAN. 15.

Constitution and Bylaws Have Been Prepared by the Committee.

Janesville's Old Settlers will take the next step in the perfecting of their organization on Tuesday evening, January 15. The following call has been issued:

"The committee appointed at our first meeting to prepare a constitution and bylaws for the society being ready to report, there will be a meeting of the society at the Business Men's rooms on Tuesday, January 15, 1895, at 7 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of acting on the same and of transacting such business as may come before the meeting. A. M. CARTER, Chm.

Dated January 8, 1895.

Election of Arcanum Officers.

At the regular meeting of the Badger Council No. 223, Royal Arcanum, held last evening, the following officers were duly elected:

Regent—Beaumont DeForest. Vice Regent—George Paris. Orator—Fred Koebin. Secretary—James Horn. Treasurer—Dr. E. E. Loomis. Collector—George S. Wright. Chaplain—S. D. Conant. Guide—William Stoddard. Warden—C. K. Bennett. Sentry—Frank Wheelock. Trustee for three years—S. C. Burnham.

Representative to Grand Lodge—William Stoddard. Alternate—Beaumont DeForest. After the installation of officers at the next regular meeting to be held on Monday evening, January 21, a banquet will be given. All members are requested to be present.

In the Markets.

Ed. J. Smith of Ziegler's, went to Chicago this morning where he will meet all the Browning, King buyers, and they will select the cloth they want made into spring suits for their respective stores. Each manager has his own peculiar idea about the make up of the clothes, and as Ed. understands just what will suit his trade the best he will have the clothes made accordingly. It is thus that "The Early Bird," etc., as all the best buyers of clothing are now in the market placing their spring orders and getting the pick of the selection.

MR. JOSEPH B. PIERCE.

"My wife has found great relief from sick headache from Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. My wife's pain has derived so much good from its use that she thinks she cannot do without it."

Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the surest road to health, because it has back of it Dr. Greene himself, who stands ready at all times to answer for its action, and its genuine worth. It cures weakness, nervousness, headache, malaria, dyspepsia, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness and nervous debility. It makes people strong and well.

Extension of water mains and improvements in the fire department have crippled the appropriations for this service in like manner, while the increased demand for street improvements has exhausted the funds in most cases raised for ward purposes. It has been evident to all acquainted with municipal matters, that it is absolutely necessary to increase the several appropriations in order to meet the necessary city expenses.

Extravagance Can't Be Charged. Few, if any, can charge a willful extravagance in the expenditure of city money. While, in some instances the manner of doing certain work may be subject to criticism, no one can maintain that the city has been swindled, or that money was spent without benefit to the town.

However, the question of increasing the appropriations will soon be raised and acted on, either by the council or the people. On January 1, 1895, the city treasurer's books exhibited balances in all the funds except that in the general fund, which was short $137.99. The other balances were as follows:

School fund.....$14,271.03
Fire and water fund.....1,659.74
Library fund.....2,385.49

CAN'T RUN THIS CITY ON VILLAGE PLANS

EXPENSE IS ADDED AS THE TOWN GROWS.

Police, Schools, Fire Department and All Other Institutions Cost More Than They Did, But No Provision Is Made To Meet Additional Cost—The Figures.

City Treasures James A. Fathers opened his books on New Year's morning and found that he had city cash on hand amounting to the handsome sum of $53,345.63.

Notwithstanding this fact, he also discovered something else that did not please him, which will not please the city officials, and will bring no joy to the general public.

It did not please Alderman Ed. Smith when he was informed that the balance to the credit of the Fifth ward fund only amounted to $42.26.

Alderman Heddies and Baines looked at the balance of $33.09 in the First ward fund and then buttoned their coats and said nothing.

Mayor Thoroughgood, when told that the general fund was short $137.99, was as much astonished, but the matters were all explained. There has been the usual expense drawn from the general fund for two years past while a less amount has been raised.

"All the funds will be short before the next tax levy," remarked Treasurer Fathers. "The school fund now has a credit of $44,271.03. This includes the fund for the new high school, as well as the regular appropriation for the support of the schools. The facts are the city has outgrown the appropriations. Expenses have been slowly increasing with the growth of the city, and no provision has been made to meet them.

Lost $20,000 From Licenses.

Twenty thousand dollars have been lost to the general fund in the past two years, on account of the license money, and that loss has not been made good. It was explained. At the same time new items of expense have been charged to the general fund.

For instance, the expenses of election have been more than doubled, and now amount to a large sum annually. The expense of the police department have been more than doubled, and this comes from the general fund.

Other funds have been crippled in a similar manner. The schools have outgrown the appropriations. Formerly it required the entire appropriation to support the schools and keep the buildings in repair. The new buildings were added, besides enlargement of old ones, and the attempt has been made to run all on the old appropriations.

Extension of water mains and improvements in the fire department have crippled the appropriations for this service in like manner, while the increased demand for street improvements has exhausted the funds in most cases raised for ward purposes.

It has been evident to all acquainted with municipal matters, that it is absolutely necessary to increase the several appropriations in order to meet the necessary city expenses.

SOME WELL KNOWN FACES.

An American Duchess.

Lord William Leslie de la Poer Beresford, V. C., C. I. E., who, it is said, will become the third husband of the dowager Duchess of Marlborough, once Mrs. Louis C. Hamersley and more recently Miss Lily Warren Price of Troy, N. Y., is one of the most reckless cross country riders and steeplechasers among the Irish gentry, and he has been compelled to pay liberally in broken bones for his reputation. He is ten years older than the duchess, who was born in 1857. She first married Louis C. Hamersley, who soon succeeded to his father's estate of $7,000,000. She has the income of this during life, and at her death it goes to a son of her husband's brother, now known as "the $7,000,000 infant." She married the Duke of Marlborough and paid all his debts, but in 1892 he died, and his son now being duke the widow is called the dowager duchess.

Germany's New Chancellor.

Prince Clodwig Carl Victor von Hohenlohe-Schillingsfurst, the new German chancellor, is a Bavarian, born at Rothenburg March 13, 1819, and is chief of the second branch of the famous princely line of Hohenlohe-Waldenburg. He entered public life very early and has been alternately statesman and diplomatist for 50 years. He was active in inducing Bavaria and the south German states generally to combine with Prussia in 1870, entered the imperial parliament at the first election, and on March 23, 1871, was elected its first vice president. He has immense wealth and is married to a lady of even greater wealth.

Fielden Turns Farmer.

Samuel Fielden, the pardoned Chicago anarchist, has turned farmer because he does not like city life. He was born in the north of England some 50 years ago and was by turns a farmer and preacher before he fell in with the anarchists. He was one of the group that had been threatening death to all who interfered with them, and under the Illinois law that made him participate criminally. Of the condemned Parsons, Fischer, Engel and Spies were hanged, Louis Ling killed himself, Neebe was sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment, and Schwab and Fielden, who had been sentenced to death, had their sentences commuted to imprisonment for life. The last three, after nearly six years in Joliet, were pardoned by Governor Altgeld.

Head Horseshoer of the Army.

Mr. John Kiernan has been chief farrier and instructor in horseshoeing in the United States army for 25 years and has a very valuable collection of farriery exhibits, showing the progress of the science and effects of good and bad treatment especially in horseshoeing. He was born in County Langford, Ireland, 55 years ago, but came to this country at the age of 15, and early in life became so noted for horseshoeing that he was taken into the special service of Robert Bonner. In 1868 he entered the government service and one year later was made chief of his department.

The Chafing Dish Two Thousand Years Old.

Women who first prized their chafing dishes for their convenience are now feeling an added pleasure in using a utensil that has a history at least of 2,000 years. They refer to what Seneca said of them and quote Soyer's description of those used by the ancient Greeks and Romans. The dish is also referred to by Cicero and is supposed to be the "anthepsa," a kind of saucepan of Corinthian brass of considerable value and made with such art that its contents cooked instantly and with little fire. This simple and ingenious vessel possessed a double bottom, the uppermost one holding the light delicacies destined for the dessert, and the fire was underneath. Another author says: "Not only did the chafing dish adorn the tables at royal banquets and contribute to the gastronomic enjoyments of the rich, but it was in high favor then, as now, among the representatives of the histrionic art. Pliny relates that the tragic actor, Aesop, had a dish worth 1,000 sesterces." The chafing dish was known in America as early as 1720, at about which time it is recorded that a wealthy father, wishing to give his daughter "a truly elegant wedding outfit," ordered for her from England, among other things, "six small brass chafing dishes, 4 shillings apiece."

French Veterans Diminishing.

Before very long it is expected that the Hotel des Invalides, the gilt dome of which forms such a conspicuous landmark in Paris, will have ceased to exist, at all events as what may be called the home of the French Chelsea pensioners. By degrees the number of pensioners lodged there has diminished until they are a mere handful. It seems that old soldiers do not care to continue to live in barracks after their retirement, but that they prefer a pension outside, be it ever so small. — Paris Journal.

ENLIGHTENMENT

CLEAR EYES,

a clear skin, a clear head, a clear system—come from the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt.

Partly, because of its cleansing, purifying action upon the blood, and because of its solvent, strengthening, stimulating action upon the liver, kidneys, stomach and bowels. It brings them back to a healthy, natural condition, in a natural way.

Habitual constipation, biliousness, loss of appetite, defective nutrition, dyspepsia—every one of these has a time-tried remedy in the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt. It is the actual water of the Sprudel Spring, solidified and put into powder form on the spot. For chronic catarrh of the stomach and other stomacal diseases use the imported Carlsbad Sprudel Water, and add a small dose of the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt to a tumblerful of the water whenever a laxative action is desired.

Do not be imposed upon by unscrupulous dealers, who will sell you a mixture of Seidlitz Powder or Glauber Salt as "Improved Carlsbad Salt" or "Artificial Carlsbad Salt," "German Salt," or under other names.

Insist upon the genuine article, which must have the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON CO., Sole Agents, New York," on every bottle.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1642—Death of Galileo Galilei, commonly called Galileo, who insisted that "the earth does move."

1815—Battle of New Orleans.
 1821—James Longstreet, soldier, born in Edgefield district, S. C.

1825—Zili Whitney, inventor of cotton gin and improved firearms, died in New Haven; born 1755. "Ark-Haven; Watt and Whitney," said Robert Fulton, "were the three men that did most for mankind of any of their contemporaries."

"After graduating at Yale, Whitney settled in Georgia as a teacher. There he invented the cotton gin for separating cotton from the seed, but his models were stolen before he obtained a patent. The invention was extensively pirated throughout the south, and the cotton industry was revolutionized by it."

1840—George Croghan, hero of the battle of Tippecanoe, Fort Meigs and Sandusky, died in New Orleans; born 1791.

1894—Fire destroyed part of the World's fair buildings, valued at $1,000,000.

OUR AND HUMILIATION.

Secretary Carlisle is having an experience with his pet currency and banking bill that to say the least is demoralizing, while the democratic party in its frantic efforts to pay expenses with a revenue totally insufficient, presents a spectacle that is humiliating in the extreme.

That the nation should drift from financial independence into a season of unparalleled business depression, resulting in private disaster on every hand and having for a grand finale, a semi-annual bond issue to meet public expenses is one of the features of national politics that will be recorded as the era of democratic ascendancy and failure.

The nation has occasion to rejoice that a time limit is placed on this sort of government, and that the dawn of better days is already apparent. The recovery, however, will be slow, and time will be required to restore confidence.

The era of greatest prosperity in this country was seen in the thirty years following the civil war. Then under a wise republican administration the national course was blotted out and the integrity of the nation preserved.

The year 1896 will witness the dawn of a similar era and under the signs of the times are misleading national prosperity will be restored and perpetuated for years to come.

Secretary Carlisle and President Cleveland will have ample time in the capacity of private citizens to consider the folly of the currency bill and other measures equally impractical emanating from the brain of democracy.

FREE SILVER NOT POPULAR.

It would undoubtedly be found, if an honest, vigorous canvass were held on this question, that free silver at the 16 to 1 ratio would be defeated by a vote of two or three to one in Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, and the rest of the western states outside the silver producing region.

The same thing, it is safe to say, would happen in the south. Free silver, under the conditions advocated by the men who are shouting for it in Washington, has no standing anywhere in the country except in the four or five mining states.

The strength of that sentiment has been greatly exaggerated by the cranks and fanatics who have been preaching it. An election which would turn strictly on this question, therefore, would be of vast benefit to this country. It would destroy this illusion of the overwhelming power of the free silver sentiment and would sell the country something that would be to its advantage to know.

Panda Face Powder.

Possesses an odor which is delightful, and from the person of one who uses this exquisite powder there is emitted a perfume—faint, delicate, hardly perceptible but yet the most characteristic—a perfume which fills the surrounding atmosphere with a delightful and enchanting fragrance which is inexpressibly charming.

Before using the powder take a chamomile skin—the oil dressed French skins are the best—and simply rub the face. The soft chamomile cleans the face, removes any oily appearance and leaves a peach-like tint upon the skin.

Powder should be applied artistically—such tint being used as blends harmoniously with the complexion, and for this reason Panda powder is manufactured in three shades—white, flesh and brunette.

It is packed in 25 cent boxes and sold by PRENTICE & EVENSON.

A Mean Man.

We don't believe there be a man so mean but what we would sell him; even our doctor, who would smile if we were tick, or our banker, who would be glad if we were hard up, or our lawyer who would laugh if we were in trouble, or our domie who would thank God if our sins would engulf us. We could sell 'em all. But the home factory has declined to continue our act unit. We are the wreckers of the high prices so long maintained by factory and agents. They could not stand our method of cutting down the profit. A large trade and small profits is our watchword. BROWN BROS. & LINCOLN.

We are sole agents for Monarch Tea in Janesville. No other grocer or house can get the genuine. They may get an inferior tea and claim it is Monarch. Dunn Bros.

Working for the Speakership.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 8.—Less senatorial talk and more concerning the speakership was the order of the day yesterday. A new senatorial candidate arrived in propria persona yesterday, George E. Adams of Chicago. He at once opened headquarters and went into the fight. Aspirants for the speakership were in evidence yesterday and the contest is still an open one, with chances not much in favor of any of the contestants.

MARZLUFF &amp; CO'S,

Shoes at Cost.

$3,000 to be sold by February 1,

By Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

Until we commenced to cut prices on shoes almost a year ago, the shoe business in this city had been a monopoly, and you have paid monopoly prices for your shoes. We are not afraid of competition, we challenge it, and thus far not a single instance have our competitors dared to meet (they say) our "ruinously low prices." We will stay in Janesville, not to move to Aurora, and we will fight to give the people of Janesville the best shoes for less money than they ever paid before. We have no fear and ask no favors. If you can buy stylish, quality guaranteed shoes and foot furnishings at any other store as cheaply as you can of us, Don't Trade Here.

We are entitled to your patronage because our store and our progressive methods are bound to benefit the city. It is to your interest to foster competition, not to crush it. You can help us make our store an ideal establishment where a poor man, as well as the wealthy can dress his feet in fashionable, dependable apparel at prices that he has heretofore been paying for trash. Marzluff & Co., refused to sell us any more, so we will close out what we have of the stock, $3,000 worth at what we paid the factory.

BIRNIE WAS ROBBED AND POUNDED TOO

ORFORDVILLE MAN HAD A PAINFUL EXPERIENCE.

Chicago Footpads Kicked Him Into Insensibility and Stole His Money and the Revolver That He Hadn't Had a Chance To Use—City News.

WILLIAM BIRNIE of Orfordville went to Chicago with a load of stock. Early in the evening he was passing along on Clark street, looking up at the number to find the address of a friend when suddenly he was struck over the back of the head. He turned to defend himself but his assailants being four or five in number, were too much for him, and struck and kicked him into insensibility. They robbed him of about $9 and his revolver which he had drawn to defend himself, but was unable to use. He came home the next day and has fully recovered from his injuries, but feels he has had enough of Chicago. Birnie works in the Ennis House at Orfordville.

Polo is getting quite a hold on Janesville people again. The Sunday practice game awakened much enthusiasm. Harry George's team defeated the Fourth ward aggregation after a close game. The Fourth ward team is composed of Henry Liehnow, Otto Lenz, Ray Pierson, Ed Clarke, Thomas Sullivan and Charles Knudson. The two teams will meet again at the rink on Friday evening.

W. J. HAHN UNDER ARREST AGAIN

The Albany Man Charged With Running a "Blind Pig."

William J. Hahn, the man who caused N. B. Robinson so much trouble a short time ago is again in hot water. W. J. was the cause of a riot, it will be remembered, in which Mr. Robinson and his force of officers, who were trying to levy on Hahn's stock, were forcibly put to rout. "Camp Twenty" is the name of Mr. Hahn's resort at Albany, of which little has been heard since Schiltz, the Milwaukee man became pressed for cold storage room last summer and had to make use of the "club house" at Albany for the convenience of his customers who bought the beer by the case and simply had it stored with Mr. Hahn so they could get a drink without going down cellar. Mr. Hahn's resort was said to shelter a "blind pig" and Albany people collected sufficient evidence for the arrest of Hahn, Ben Mitchell and W. G. Wallace, who are charged with selling liquor without a license and the case will be tried at Monroe.

MILLER BUYS CLEAR LAKE INN.

The Janesville Landlord Now Owns a Fine Summer Resort.

The Clear Lake Inn near Milton Junction with all the furniture and fixtures, including ten acres of ground, was purchased last evening by E. D. Miller, the popular landlord of the Myers house. Landlord Miller will not run the hotel but will move the furniture and fixtures to this city and rent the Myers.

"I don't know just what I will do with the hotel," said Mr. Miller this afternoon. "That hotel was one of the best and most complete furnished hotels in the western country. No fixtures in the Chicago hotels are better."

NELLIE McHENRY'S SHOW IS GOOD

"A Night at the Circus" Pleased a Large Audience Immensely Last Night.

Janesville theatre goes good to the worth of their money at the Myers Grand last night when Nellie McHenry's company presented a "Night at the Circus." The play is an unusually high grade farce comedy and pleased a large audience immensely. There is not a poor member in the company. Miss McHenry has lost none of her agility and is as merry and entertaining as ever, and her support is the kind to which she is entitled. "A Night at the Circus" is a "comedy as is a comedy" and they can't bring it here too often.

H. S. WOODRUFF HAS NOT RETIRED

Factory Under New Control But He Still Has Plenty of Business.

H. S. Woodruff denies that he has retired from active business life as was stated in the Gazette last night. "Your paper last evening did me an injustice by saying I have retired from active business life," said Mr. Woodruff today. "Mr. Dilzer who has been the foreman in our factory for twenty years and my son George who has had charge of the books have taken control of the works. But if you will come to the farm you will find business enough to keep me active for some time."

DEATH'S HAND WAS LAID ON

Edward Daley.

Edward Daley died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Garry, 54 Fifth avenue, at 4:15 o'clock this morning, of stomach trouble, aged seventy-three years. Mr. Daley resided in Johnstown for forty years and recently came to this city to live with his daughter. He leaves, besides the daughter with whom he resided, two sons, Edward Daley, of Beloit, and James Daley, of Johnstown. The funeral will be held from St. Mary's church at 8 o'clock on Thursday morning, after which the remains will be taken overland to Whitewater for burial.

A BAD BELOIT MAN IS IN JAIL HERE

SHERIFF APPELBY'S FIRST PRISONER A TOWNSMAN.

First, William Campbell Tackled William Frederick, Then He Threw an Iron Statue at Mrs. Hamlin—She Summoned Her Husband, Who Dressed the Pugilist Down.

City Marshal George Appleby, of Beloit, furnished his brother, Sheriff Appleby, with his first prisoner, in the person of William Campbell, of Beloit, whom he landed in jail five minutes after the new sheriff had taken charge of the bastille. Campbell is charged with three offenses, the charges growing out of his attempt to whip too many people. He stepped into William Hamlin's barn and asked William Frederick to take a drink out of a bottle. Frederick ordered Campbell away, but instead of going he began to punch Frederick's head. The tumult brought Mrs. Hamlin to the barn, and when Campbell saw her coming he picked up a piece of heavy iron statuary, and when she ordered him off the premises he threw the iron at her and called her offensive names. She informed Mr. Hamlin whereupon Hamlin gave the young ruffian a hard hammering, but in doing it Campbell chewed one of Hamlin's fingers dreadfully. When Mr. Hamlin thought he had whipped Campbell sufficiently he let him go, but the fellow hung around abusing him till Marshal Appleby arrived and locked him up. Campbell was arraigned before Justice Booth and held to the circuit court, his hearing being set for Jan. 17. He stands a good chance of going to Waupun as his chewing Mr. Hamlin's finger is a state prison offense.

HER ARM BROKEN WHILE SKATING

Miss Lizzie Peterson Injured on the Ice at Monterey.

Miss Lizzie Peterson, employed in Adam Holt's Railroad hotel, met with a painful accident last evening on the ice at Monterey, breaking her arm above the wrist. A large number of young people were skating when there was a general rush to gain a certain point. The result was that several hundred collided, among them being Miss Peterson, who fell in such a manner as to break her arm. Dr. Pember reduced the fracture and Miss Peterson laid away her skates for the season.

The Care of the Eyes.

This is the season of long nights and short days. Now that during so many of our working hours we must depend for light upon artificial means, and so many thousands of students and working people use their eyes all the long evening, a few statements bearing on this subject are timely and may be profitable. There are times when much exertion of the eyes is more hurtful than at others. Immediately after a full meal, when the blood is required in the stomach for purposes of digestion, not the eyes only, but the brain, the muscles, the whole body should rest. A pair of glasses will help the eyes to rest more than any other one thing and W. F. Hayes, the optician, can adjust them in the most scientific manner.

NOTES ON NEEDLEWORK.

A novel decoration consists of fringes of large cut glass beads.

A pretty table screen to shield the eyes from the lamp is made with semi-transparent panels of colored Madras muslin set in fan-shaped flutings.

Cut-work continues popular for edging d'oyles and toilet sets. It is closely filled in with stitches of colored silks, and is often outlined with washing gold thread.

Charming bonbonnières can be made of cream colored satin, worked with wee spangles, gold passing and a few stitches of floss silk. Fans are prepared for working in the same way.

Table centers are too effective to be readily discarded. The newest are of cream-colored net, upon which is applique, a design in cambrie. This is thickly covered with stitches of colored silk and gold thread.

The flower d'oyles have given place to leaf designs. These are worked in a similar fashion to the flowers, but are more carefully shaded. The edges are always buttonholed, so that they can be cut round.

Tussah silk in its natural brownish hue is just now being turned to account for bedspreads. It is embroidered with silk of the same color, and looks particularly well when bordered with a frill of soft silk, blue, vieux-rose or green.

Handsome sideboard cloths can be made of coarse linen, with an insertion of crochet let in some three inches above each end. The ends are bordered with lace to match, and a narrower edging to correspond is carried along the front.

The novel appliques for linen are becoming extremely popular, giving a wonderfully good effect at the expense of remarkable little time and trouble. The latest idea is to use them upon silk or satin, and to cover them closely with stitches of colored flosses.

Some new linen embroidery has been brought out, in which the pattern takes the form of open scallops or arches, set one above the other. When these are buttonholed over and the linen cut away from beneath them, an effective openwork border is the result.

WANT ALL BOILERS INSPECTED

Association of Stationary Engineers Want Some Legislation in that Line.

The Janesville branch of the National Association of Stationary Engineers is now in a very flourishing condition, and the members are taking interest in perfecting the organization. There will be an effort made this winter to procure some legislation at Madison in relation to steam engines, one of the most important points sought to be obtained is the regular inspection of steam boilers, by competent persons; and also that all persons engaging in steam engineering be compelled to pass an examination, demonstrating that such person has some knowledge of the business. The Janesville branch met in their new hall in the William's block last evening, and installed the following officers for the ensuing year.

President—M. R. Walter.
Vice President—Thomas Coyne.
Secretary—L. B. Putnam.
Treasurer—L. F. Dudley.
Conductor—George Phillips.
Doorkeeper—H. W. Smith.
Trustee for three years—Herman Buchholz.

He Is Gradually Recovering From His Stroke of Paralysis.

Ex-Sheriff R. P. Pember, who has been confined to his home and bed for many months, suffering from a stroke of paralysis, is said to be slowly improving. On New Years he was able to walk around his home in Johnstown, the first time in five months.

TWO MORE DRUNKS GO TO JAIL

Sidney Wood and Thomas Herron Got One Day Each.

Sidney Wood and Thomas Herron landed guilty this morning to the charge of drunk and disorderly conduct, and Judge Phelps sent them down to the Hotel Appleby for one day each.

The Transmigration Theory.

A couple of dilapidated tramps were standing in front of the window of an Austin (Tex.) drug store in which were a number of bottles containing specimens of Texas insects.

"When I kick the bucket I want to turn into an insect," said the first cross-roads tourist.

"What good will that do yer?" said the other.

"Well, I might be put in a bottle of alcohol if I was a centipede," replied the philosopher.—Texas Siftings.

A Sure Thing.

"Ha!" gasped the murderer, in sudden fear, "the blood-stained garments. Where shall I put them that they may be lost forever?"

He paced the floor in agony. "I have it," he cried at last.

Triumphantly marking his initials on the clothing in large, indelible type and wrapping it in a paper, upon which he wrote his name and address in a bold hand, he sent it to a steam laundry. Exulting then in his security, he went forth.—Detroit Tribune.

A Puzzling Question.

Mr. Cynical Sneer and Tom Spittle-jag, two society youths, had a row in their clubroom. The latter said very severely:

"My dear friend, allow me to tell you that you are a donkey."

"Well," responded Mr. Sneer, "will you kindly tell me, am I a donkey because I'm your friend, or am I your friend because I'm a donkey?"—Texas Siftings.

She Wasn't Sure.

Mamma—What is Willie crying about?

Bridget—Shure, ma'am, he wanted to go across the street to Tommy Brown's.

Mamma—Well, why don't you let him go?

"They were havin' charades," he said, ma'am, and I wasn't shure as he'd 'em yet."—N. Y. Journal.

Defending Himself.

"Mamie," said Mrs. Gazzam to her daughter, "I was shocked to hear you tell Miss Trotter that you had turned some young man down. That's very reprehensible slang."

"Not in this case, mamma," replied the maiden. "I was speaking of Mr. Page, and it is quite proper to turn a page down."—Town Topics.

Evidence.

A little Buffalo girl was not feeling well and her parent suggested that she might be about to have chickenpox, then prevalent. She went to bed laughing at the idea, but early next morning she went into her parents' room, looking very serious, and said:

"Yes, it's chickenpox, papa. I found a feather in the bed."—Progressive Age.

Kindly Advice.

"My sweetheart's father called me an idiot last night. What would you do if you were me?"

"H—m! lemme see. By Jove! I've got it. You just go to Dr. Pildee and get him to write a certificate that you are not. He'll do anything for money."—Indianapolis Journal.

L. M. NELSON WILL BE THE UNDER SHERIFF

SHERIFF APPELBY'S APPOINTMENTS GIVEN OUT.

R. P. Maltress, of Edgerton, C. C. Brink, of Evansville, George W. Earle, of Clinton, and George M. Appleby, of Beloit, Will Be the Deputies—All Men of Experience.

Sheriff Appleby today announced that his appointments would be as follows:

Under Sheriff—L. M. Nelson of Janesville.

Deputy for the village of Clinton—George M. Earle.

Deputy for the city of Edgerton—R. P. Maltress.

Deputy for the village of Evansville—Charles C. Brink.

Deputy for the city of Beloit—George M. Appleby.

These appointments show good judgment on Sheriff Appleby's part. L. M. Nelson, whom he selected for under sheriff, has had a good deal of experience as a deputy, he having served in that capacity for some years. R. P. Maltress of Edgerton was Sheriff Bear's deputy at that city and did excellent work. No better choice could have been made. G. M. Appleby, the deputy at Beloit is the marshal of that city and is a thoroughly good officer. He is a brother of the sheriff. C. C. Brink, the deputy for the village of Evansville was also one of Sheriff Bear's deputies, and is now village marshal. George W. Earle of Clinton, has had large experience. He was village marshal at the time of the Bitson murder case and took an active part in capturing the murderer.

"He tried to make the engagement ring do for a Christmas present."—N. Y. Herald.

Cynical.

An assault case, in which a husband was accused of beating his wife, was on trial in a certain court. A friend of the family had been summoned, much against his will, to testify as to the blows. He was asked by the prosecutor:

"You saw these blows administered?"

"I did."

"And did you see the very beginning of the quarrel between them?"

"I did."

"When was it?"

"Five years ago."

"Five years ago! How was that possible?"

"I was a guest at their wedding!"

Too Foolish for Her.

Minnie—Mr. Billie, if I should consent to be your wife are you sure you would never object to my dressmaker's bills, never refuse to buy opera tickets when asked, never—er—in fact, never object to any expenses which I might wish to incur?

Mr. Billie—Darling, I swear it!

No Wonder She Smiled.

Judge Peterby, of Harlem, is very absent minded, particularly when he takes a drop too much. He has a large family of children, and meeting a little girl on the street he stopped and said to her:

"Little girl, why do you smile at me in such a friendly manner?"

"Because you are my papa."—Texas Siftings.

Hardest Work Is Getting the Job.

"It must be pretty hard work pounding the pavement with that great rammer," said the idler.

"Sure," said Mr. Grogan, "it is not the droppin' av the thing on the shingles that is the hard work at all. It is the liftin' av it up."—Indianapolis Journal.

So Does Mr. Meeker.

"You pamper the child too much, Lucinda," said Mrs. Meeker's mother. "All he needs is exercise."

"He gets plenty of exercise, mamma, I'm sure," responded Mrs. Meeker. "Orlando walks the floor with him two or three hours every night."—Chicago Tribune.

Insult to Injury.

Mrs. Newlywed—John, love, you must really grow a beard.

Mr. Newlywed—Nonsense, pet; why do you wish that?

Mrs. Newlywed—So that when you carry baby nights he'll have something to grab hold of.—Harper's Bazar.

Just Fitted.

Mrs. Hicks—You needn't mind about those flannels I asked you to get for Dick.

Hicks—Did you find some for him? Mrs. Hicks—Yes, I washed two new suits of yours.—N. Y. World.

Not Familiar with Cherubim.

"Now, Uncle Ned, isn't it the sweetest little cherub in the world?"

"Well, Lucy, I'm not very well up on cherubs, but as a specimen of plain human baby he is certainly a howling success."—Puck.

Both Alike.

Old Goodman (sighing)—I'm an old man now and living on borrowed time.

Young Fastleigh—Then you're worse off than I am. I'm living on borrowed money, and time's money, you know.—Brooklyn Life.

A Strong Motive.

Miss Romantic—I suppose the most of your stories have some substantial basis?

Mr. Scribbler—Yes; the fact that I have to pay my rent monthly in advance.—Puck.

"PALACES OF INDIA" IS HIS SUBJECT

DR. TALMAGE ON THE THE-ORIES OF MOHAMMED.

Gen. Nicholson's Siege of the Walled City Filled with Devils—The Unequal Struggle Between Britain and Sepoy—Spread of God's Truth.

ROCKLYN, Dec. 30.—Continuing his series of round the world sermons, through the press, Rev. Dr. Talmage to-day chose for his subject, "Palaces of India," the text being: Amos 3:2, "Who store up violence and robbery in their palace."

In this day when vast sums of money are being given for the redemption of India, I hope to increase the interest in that great country, and at the same time draw for all classes of our people practical lessons, and so I present this fifth sermon in the "round the world" series. We step into the ancient capital of India, the mere pronunciation of its name sending a thrill through the body, mind and soul of all those who have ever read its stories of splendor, and disaster, and prowess—Delhi.

Before the first historian impressed his first word in clay, or cut his first word on marble, or wrote his first word on papyrus, Delhi stood in India, a contemporary of Babylon and Nineveh. We know that Delhi existed longer before Christ's time than we live after his time. Delhi is built on the ruins of seven cities, which ruins cover forty miles with wrecked temples, broken fortresses, split tombs, tumble down palaces, and the debris of centuries. An archaeologist could profitably spend his life here talking with the past through its lips of venerable masonry.

There are a hundred things here you ought to see in this city of Delhi, but three things you must see. The first thing that I wanted to see was the Cashmere gate, for that was the point at which the most wonderful deed of daring which the world has ever seen was done. That was the turning point of the mutiny of 1857. A lady at Delhi put into my hand an oil painting of about eighteen inches square, a picture well executed, but chiefly valuable for what it represented. It was a scene from the time of mutiny; two horses at full run, harnessed to a carriage in which were four persons. She said: "Those persons on the front side are my father and mother. The young lady on the back seat holding in her arms a baby of a year was my eldest sister and the baby was myself. My mother, who is down with a fever in the next room, painted that years ago. The horses are in full run because we are fleeing for our lives. My mother is driving, for the reason that father, standing up in the front of his carriage, had to defend us with his gun, as you there see. He fought our way out and on for many a mile, shooting down the Sepoys as we went. We had somewhat suspected trouble and become suspicious of our servants. A prince had requested a private interview with my father, who was editor of the Delhi Gazette. The prince proposed to come veiled, so that no one might recognize him, but my mother insisted on being present, and the interview did not take place. A large fish had been sent to our family, and four other families, the present offering of thanks for the king's recovery from a recent sickness. But we suspected poison and did not eat the fish. One day all our servants came up and said they must go and see what was the matter. We saw what was intended and knew that the servants returned they would murder all of us. Things grew worse and worse until this scene of flight shown you in the picture took place. You see the horses were wild with fright. This was not only because of the discharge of guns, but the horses were struck and pounded by Sepoys, and ropes were tied across the way.

The books have fully recorded the heroism displayed at Delhi and approximate regions, but make no mention of this family of Wagentreibers whose flight I am mentioning. But the Madras "Athenaeum" printed this: "And now! Are not the deeds of the Wagentreibers, though he wore a round hat and she a coroline, as worthy of imperishable verse as those of the heroic pair whose nuptials graced the court of Charlemagne? A more touching picture than that of brave men contending with well-nerved arm against the black and threatening fate impending over his wife and child, we have never seen. Here was no strife for the glory of physical prowess, or the spoil of shining arms, but a conquest of the human mind, an assertion of the powers of intellect over the most appalling array of circumstances that could assail a human being. Men have become gray in front of sudden and unexpected peril, and in ancient days so much was courage a matter of heroics and mere instinct that we read in immortal verse of heroes struck with panic and fleeing before the enemy. But the brave Sepoys, with their hoarse war cry, and swarming like wasps around the Wagentreibers, struck no terror into the brave man's heart. His heroism was not the mere ebullition of despair, but, like that of his wife, calm and wise; standing upright that he might use his arms better."

As an incident will sometimes more impress one than a generality of statement, I present the flight of this family from Delhi merely to illustrate the desperations of the times. The fact was that the Sepoys had taken possession of the city of Delhi, and they were, with all their artillery, fighting back the Europeans, who were on the outside. The city of Delhi has a crenulated wall on three sides, a wall five and one half miles long, and the fourth side of the city is defended by the River Jumna. In addition to these two defenses of wall and water, there were 40,000 Sepoys, all armed. Twelve hundred British soldiers were to take that city. Nicholson, the immortal general, commanded them, and you must visit his grave before you leave Delhi. He fell leading his troops. He commanded them even after being mortally wounded. You will read this inscription on his tomb: "John Nicholson, who led the assault of Delhi, but fell in the hour of victory, mortally wounded, and died 23d September, 1857. Aged 35 years."

With what guns and men Gen. Nicholson could muster he had laid siege to this walled city filled with devils. What fearful odds! Twelve hundred British troops uncovered by any military works, to take a city surrounded by firm and high masonry, on the top of which were 114 guns and defended by 40,000 foaming Sepoys. A larger percentage of troops fell here than in any great battle I happen to know of. The Crimean percentage of the fallen was 17.48, but the percentage of Delhi was 37.9. Yet that city must be taken, and it can only be taken by such courage as had never been recorded in all the annals of bloodshed. Every charge of the British regiments against the walls and gates had been beaten back. The hyenas of Hindooism and Mohammedanism howled over the walls, and the English army could do nothing but bury their own dead. But at this gate I stand and watch an exploit that makes the page of history tremble with agitation. This city has ten gates, but the most famous is the one before which we now stand, and it is called Cashmere gate. Write the words in red ink, because of the carnage! Write them in letters of blood, for the bereft and the dead. Will the reader ever forget that Cashmere gate? Lieutenants Salkeld and Home and Sergeants Burgess, Carmichael and Smith offered to take bags of powder to the foot of that gate and set them on fire, blowing open the gate, although they must die in doing it. There they go, just after sunrise, each one carrying a sack containing twenty-four pounds of powder, and doing this under the fire of the enemy. Lieut. Home was the first to jump into the ditch, which still remains before the gate. As they go, one by one falls under the shot and shell. One of the mortally wounded, as he falls, hands his sack of powder with a box of lucifer matches to another, telling him to fire the sack; when with an explosion that shook the earth for twenty miles around, part of the Cashmere gate was blown into fragments, and the bodies of some of these heroes were so scattered that they were never gathered for funeral, or grave, or monument. The British army rushed in through the broken gate, and although six days of hard fighting were necessary before the city was in complete possession, the crisis was past. The Cashmere gate open, the capture of Delhi and all it contained of palaces, and mosques, and treasures was possible. Lord Napier of Magdala, of whom Mr. Gladstone spoke to me so affectionately when I was his guest at Hawarden, England, has lifted a monument near this Cashmere gate with the names of the men who there fell inscribed thereon. That English lord, who has seen courage on many a battlefield, visited the Cashmere gate, and felt that the men who opened it with the loss of their own lives ought to be commemorated, and hence this cenotaph. But, after all, the best monument is the gate itself, with the deep gouges in the brick wall on the left side, made by two bomb-shells, and the wall above, torn by ten bomb-shells, and the wall on the right side, defaced, and scraped, and plowed, and gullied by all styles of long reaching weaponry. Let the words "Cashmere gate," as a synonym for patriotism, and fearlessness, and self-sacrifice, go into all history, all art, all literature, all time, all eternity! My friends, that kind of courage sanctified will yet take the whole earth for God. Indeed, the missionaries now at Delhi, toiling amid heathenism, and fever, and cholera, and far away from home and comfort, and staying there until they drop into their graves, are just as brave in taking Delhi for Christ as were Nicholson, and Home, and Carmichael in taking Delhi for Great Britain. Take this for the first sermon lesson.

As that night we took the railroad train from the Delhi station and rolled out through the city now living, over the vaster cities buried under this ancient capital, cities under cities, and our traveling servant had unrolled our bed, which consisted of a rug and two blankets and a pillow; and as we were worn out with the sightseeing of the day, and were roughly tossed on that uneven Indian railway, I soon fell into a troubled sleep, in which I saw and heard in a confused way the scenes and sounds of the mutiny of 1857, which at Delhi we had been recounting; and now the rattle of the train seemed to turn into the rattle of musketry; and now the light at the top of the car deluded me with the idea of a burning city; and then the loud thump of the railroad brake was in dream mistaken for a booming battery; and the voices at the different stations made me think I heard the loud cheer of the British at the taking of the Cashmere gate; and as we rolled over bridges the battles before Delhi seemed going on; and as we went through dark tunnels I seemed to see the tomb of Humayun in which the king of Delhi was hidden; and in my dreams I saw Lieut. Renny, of the artillery, throwing shells which were handed him, their fuses burning; and Campbell, and Reid, and Hope Grant covered with blood; and Nicholson falling while rallying his wavering troops; and I saw dead regiment fallen across dead regiment, and heard the rattling of the hoofs of Hodgson's horse, and the dash of the Bengal artillery, and the storming of the immortal Fourth column; and the rougher the Indian railway became, and the darker the night grew, the more the scenes that I had been studying at Delhi came on me like an incubus. But the morning began to look through the window of our jolting car, and the sunlight poured in on my pillow, and in my dream I saw the bright colors of the English flag hoisted over Delhi, where the green banner of the Moslem had waved, and the voices of the wounded and dying seemed to be exchanged for the voices that welcomed soldiers home again. And as the morning light got brighter and brighter, and in my dream I mistook the bells at a station for a church bell hanging in a minaret, where a Mohammedan priest had mumbled his call to prayer, I seemed to hear a chant, whether by human or angelic voices in my dream I could not tell, but it was a chant about "Peace and good will to men." And as the speed of the railroad slackened the motion of the car became so easy as we rolled along the track that it seemed to me that all the distress, and controversy, and jolting, and wars of the world had ceased; and in my dream I thought we had come to the time when "The ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; and sorrow and sighing shall flee away."

Halt here at what you have never seen before, a depopulated city, the city of Amber, India. The strange fact is that a ruler abandoned his palaces at Amber and moved to Jeypore, and all the inhabitants of the city followed. Except here and there a house in Amber occupied by a hermit, the city is as silent a population as Pompeii or Herculaneum; but those cities were emptied by volcanic disaster, while this city of Amber was vacated because Prince Joy Singh was told by a Hindoo priest that no city should be inhabited more than a thousand years, and so the ruler 170 years ago moved out himself, and all his people moved with him. I will not go far into a description of brazen doorway after brazen doorway, and carved room after carved room, and lead you under embellished ceiling after embellished ceiling, and through halls precious stoned into wider halls precious stoned. Why tire out your imagination with the particulars, when you may sum up all by saying that on the slopes of that hill of India are pavilions deeply dyed, tasseled and arched; the fire of colored gauds cooled by the snow of white architecture; bath rooms that refresh before your feet touch the marble; birds in arabesque so natural to life, that while you can not hear their voices, you imagine you see the flutter of their wings as you are passing; stoneware translucent; walls pictured with hunting scene, and triumphal procession, and jousting party; rooms that were called "Alcove of Light," and "Court of Honor," and "Hall of Victory," marble, white and black, like a mixture of morning and night; alabaster, and lacquer work, and mother of pearl; all that architecture, and sculpture, and painting, and horticulture can do when they put their genius together was done here in ages past, and much of their work still stands to absorb and entrance archaeologist and sight seer. But what a solemn and stupendous thing is an abandoned city. While many of the peoples of the earth have no roof for their head, here is a whole city of roofs rejected. The sand of the desert was sufficient excuse for the disappearance of Heliopolis, and the waters of the Mediterranean sea for the engulfment of Tyre, and the lava of Mount Vesuvius for the obliteration of Herculaneum; but for the sake of nothing but a superstitious whim the city of Amber is abandoned forever. O, wondrous India! The city of Amber is only one of the marvels which compel the uplifted hand of surprise from the day you enter India until you leave it. Its flora is so flamboyant; its fauna so monstrous and savage; its ruins so suggestive; its idolatry so horrible; its degradation so sickening; its mineralogy so brilliant; its splendors so uplifting; its architecture so old, so grand, so educational, so multipotent, that India will not be fully comprehended until science has made its last experiment, and exploration has ended its last journey, and the library of the world's literature has closed its last door, and Christianity has made its last achievement, and the clock of time has struck its last hour.

A Baby Prince's Elaborate Carriage.

Prince Edward of York, the royal babe who will in the long future be the head of the British empire, will shortly have his first English made carriage. It consists of a perambulator of highest class workmanship of the "Princess Irene" barouche pattern, is fitted with non-vibrating, leather hung cee springs and silent cycle wheels, with hollow rubber tires. The vehicle is upholstered in finest dark green morocco leather, softly padded with horsehair cushions, so constructed that the infant occupant can recline or ride with face or back to the nurse. The visage is protected from the rain by a cowhide hood, easily adjusted to any position, and in sunshine this can be removed and the prince shaded from heat by an awning of tussore silk, lined to match the carriage, and trimmed with delicate and beautiful lace. Baby cars of a somewhat similar pattern have been built by the same firm for the children of the duchess of Fife and Princess Henry of Prussia.

Every tiny protuberance on a branch of coral represents a living animal, which grows from it like a plant.

Hope Crushed to Earth
Will rise again in the bosom of a dyspeptic use enough to substitute for the transcendental, which have banished him out of his belief in the possibility of cure, the real invigorant and stomachic, Hettler's Stomach Bitters. The bilious, the nervous, the dyspeptic, the rheumatic alike derive speedy benefit from this helpful botanic medicine. Persons suffering from indigestion will gain no positive permanent good from the fiery unmedicated stimulants of commerce, too often used recklessly. The Bitters is immeasurably, to be preferred to these as a tonic, since its pure basis is modified by the conjunction with it of vegetable ingredients of the highest remedial excellence. Malaria is prevented and remedied by it, and it induces vigor, induces the weak and sickly. A wineglassful three times a day is the average dose.

Special Tax Notice.
Notice is hereby given that the warrant for the collection of the special assessment for paving West Milwaukee street between High and Academy streets and East Milwaukee street between Main and Division streets, in the city of Jamesville, is now in my hands for collection, and that I will receive the same at the office of the city treasurer until January 10, 1895, after which I shall proceed to collect the same as the law directs.

"Trust Those Who Have Tried."
Catarrh caused hoarseness and difficulty in speaking. I also to a great extent lost hearing. By the use of Ely's Cream Balm dropping of mucous has ceased, voice and hearing have greatly improved.—J. W. Davidson, Attorney at Law, Monmouth, Ill.
I used Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh and have received great benefit. I believe it a safe and certain cure. Very pleasant to take.—Wm. Frazer, Rochester, N. Y.
Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

Inaugural Excursion.
On January 5, 6 and 7 the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will sell excursion tickets to Madison at a fare and a third for the round trip, good to return until January 8. Three trains a day each way via the C. M. & St. P. route.

Taking a Mean Advantage.
Hall—How did you get rid of that railroad stock? I didn't think anyone would touch it, considering the condition of the road.
Ball—Well, I found a party who wasn't posted.
Hall—Who was he?
Ball—One of the directors.—Brooklyn Life.

They Cured Him.
Wibbles—I hear Spoutem has been cured of his itch for office. Isn't that a little strange?
Wabble—Er—not so very. About every other voter scratched him.—Buffalo Courier.

A Comparison.
"What sort of steak do they serve at your boarding-house?"
"Oh, it is a good deal like a French novel—rather tough, but very well done."—Cincinnati Tribune.

A YOUNG GIRL'S FORTUNE.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH.
Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: "Our daughter, Blanche, now 15 years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she would have had that terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she has taken only three bottles of Nerveine she now weighs 125 pounds, her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and stores with confidence and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and no money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miles' Nerveine has brought her."
When my brother recommended the remedy, I had no faith in patent medicines, and would not listen to him, but as a last resort he sent me a bottle, we began giving it to Blanche, and the effect was almost immediate.—Mrs. R. R. Belock, Brighton, N. Y.
Dr. J. C. Rosette Nerveine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medicine Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs.
